

Portage Northern Winter Guard 2009 Friends and Family Night

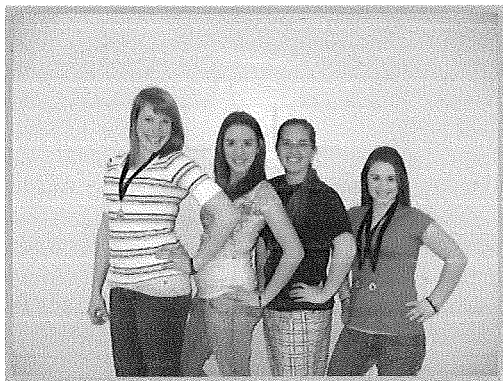

The Portage Northern Winter Guard invites you to our annual Friends and Family Performance! Whether you are family to a member, friends of a performer or just interested in learning more about Winter Guard – EVERYONE is welcome!

The performance will take place on Thursday, March 19 at 7:00 in the Portage North Middle School Gymnasium. The team will perform their 2009 show entitled “Someone to Fall Back On” as well as warm-up routines and basic blocks they have perfected.

Also, four of the members will perform their individual routines which were successful in competition. The members are extremely excited to show you both their ensemble and individual routines so make sure you attend!
